Dunwoody restaurant to help feed hungry this Saturday

Your Pie franchisee Lisa Maclellan will be celebrating the Dunwoody restaurant's first anniversary by giving food to a local organization that aims to help the hungry in Dunwoody and Sandy Springs.

"This Saturday, for every gyro pie sold, we'll donate one pizza to feed hungry local families," said Maclellan. "We've set a goal to sell 365 gyro so we can donate one pizza for every day we've been open."

The donated pizzas will go to the Community Assistance Center, an organization whose goal to prevent hunger in Sandy Springs and Dunwoody.

"Food donations to the center go directly to those in need right here in our community and allows the food pantry to provide for an average of 1,200 visits a month," Maclellan said. "In 2015, the center gave out more than 500,000 pounds of food valued at about $1 million. Thanks to donations from individuals, businesses, congregations, schools and civic organizations about 500 families a month receive food assistance."

She said she expects the restaurant to meet their goal of donating 365 pizzas because the Dunwoody community has been "very open and receptive" since opening last year.

Your Pie Perimeter is located at 123 Perimeter Center West, Suite 200 in Dunwoody.
